

THE LIVING SENT PODCAST: SHOW NOTES

EPISODE: 002

TITLE: The 3 Essential Missionary Qualities You Never Knew You Had

1. You have a unique personality. When you consider Living SENT, you may be tempted to believe that it only applies to one type of person or one type of personality profile. Nothing could be farther from the truth. God has gifted you with a unique personality to be used for His work in the world. He uses different kinds of people to reach different kinds of people.
  - a. Discussion question(s): Briefly describe your personality. Instead of criticizing it, think of ways in which your personality could be uniquely used by God to Live SENT? What are you good at? What special skills, talents, or interests do you possess?

2. You have a unique placement. You exist during this time and in this location for a reason. Out of all the time periods and places you could have been born, you exist right here and right now. The people that God brings into your sphere of influence are not accidents, they are divine opportunities.
  - a. Discussion question(s): Who are you waiting for to reach your neighbors, co-workers, and friends? Brainstorm a few ways that you can be a blessing to those within your unique placement this week.

3. You have unique pain and past experiences. God always has a purpose for your pain and can use your past experiences. Though they often continue to hurt, our past pains can be our greatest source of connection with others in our broken world. Don't dismiss what has happened in the past. Let God heal you and use what happened to serve others.
  - a. Discussion question(s): Justin shared a quote at the beginning of the podcast: "The universal language is not love; its pain." Interact with this statement. Do you agree or disagree? Why? How have you seen God use your pain and past experiences to help others?

Thanks for listening. See you next episode.
